

The 10 Commandments Of Firearm Safety

- 1. Treat every gun as if it were loaded.
- 2. Always be aware of where the gun's muzzle is pointed.
- 3. Unload guns when not in use.
- 4. Be sure the barrel is clear of obstructions.
- 5. Be sure of your target before you pull the trigger.
- 6. Never point a gun at anything you do not want to shoot.
- 7. Never climb a tree or fence or jump a ditch with a loaded firearm.
- 8. Never shoot a bullet at a flat, hard surface or water.
- 9. Store guns and ammunition separately.
- 10. Avoid alcoholic beverages before and during shooting.

As a recipient of federal funds from the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, the Arkansas Game and Fish Commission operates programs subject to the nondiscrimination requirements of Title VI of the 1964 Civil Rights Act, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Age Discrimination Act of 1975 and Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972.

Under these acts, the USFWS strictly prohibits discrimination because of race, color, national origin, age, sex or handicap in its federally assisted programs. Any person who believes he or she has been discriminated against in any program, activity or facility of the AGFC or desires further information regarding these acts should write:

Hunter Education

Who Needs Hunter Education?

Anyone born after Dec. 31, 1968, must complete a hunter education course and carry a valid hunter education card to hunt in Arkansas. Children under 16 may hunt without hunter education as long as they are under the direct supervision of an adult who is 21 years old and has a valid hunting license. There is no specific age requirement to enroll in hunter education. However, the educational material is based on a sixth-grade reading level.

Arkansas recognizes hunter education cards from other states. Arkansas's hunter education program is recognized in all states as well as in Canada and Mexico.

The Arkansas Game and Fish Commission's Hunter Education Program is dedicated to the safe enjoyment of our outdoors. Through the program, students learn not only firearms safety, but general woodsmanship and basic outdoors survival skills.

Three Ways to Learn

AGFC offers three options for students to learn and get in the woods for their first hunt.

- Instructor-led Classes The traditional and preferred hunter education method is through a 10-hour instructor-led classroom and hands-on demonstration. Classes may be a few hours a night for three to four nights or a full Saturday class. The final class will end with a test to pass the course. Interested students may call (800) 482-5795 to find a course in their area.
- CD-ROM Study Course Students may call (501) 223-6487 or toll-free (800) 482-5795 and request a CD-ROM be mailed to take the course on their home computer. The student must complete each section of the self-study course and schedule a supervised final examination at an official testing site.
- Online Self-Study Course Students may visit www.agfc.com/education-class/hunter-education.aspx and complete each section of the course online. They must take a supervised final examination at an official testing site to complete the course.
